Hope Man to Run for State Secretary

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Withdrawal of Arnold Sikes from the secretary of state's race Tuesday brought two new potential candidates into the speculative field.
Kelly Bryant of Hope, executive secretary of the Arkansas Sheriffs Association, said he "intends" to make the race.
L. A. Clayton, serving as state treasurer by appointment and ineligible to succeed himself, said he would consider seeking the job
now that Sikes is out.
Rep. Milton Willis of Crawford County, who said a year ago he would like to have the job, said Tuesday he will run unless he changes his mind.
State Auditor Jimmie Jones declined comment on reports that he would go after the job, Jones said he was getting urging to run for governor and he would announce his plans by Monday.
Phil Stratton, an employee of the Public Service Commission, would not comment on the race Tuesday.
Stratton announced a year ago he would seek the job.
Sikes, executive secretary to
Gov. Orval E. Faubus, was considered a sure candidate now that Faubus has chosen to retire. However, he told a news conference
Tuesday he had offers of three other jobs, all paying more than twice the $5,000 annual secretary of state's salary.
Sikes said he owed it to his family to consider the higher paying jobs. One is with the state and two with private business, he said.

TAKE IT LYING DOWN — TWO-YEAR-OLD Gary John Higgins of San Antonio, Tex., decided to take it lying down as his mother stands in line with about 300 other tardy auto license tag buyers. Gary got so tired waiting, he spread his coat in the middle of the courthouse hall and went to sleep. — NEA Telephoto.

LIZ'S LATEST — ELIZABETH TAYLOR'S LATEST romantic interest, Welsh actor Richard Burton, leaves Miss Taylor's villa in Rome. Accompanied by his fiancée, Liz, Burton left in a separate car for the studio where he is co-starring on the film "Cleopatra" with Miss Taylor. After announcing that her marriage to Eddie Fisher was finished, Miss Taylor went to work as usual. — NEA Radiophoto.

Trade Stamps Make Visit Possible

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Warren Griswold of Malvern may visit her home in Italy and pay for the trip with trading stamps donated by her friends.
Several of her friends began a campaign to collect 253 books of stamps, which the stamp company said Mrs. Griswold would need to finance the plane trip.
John Banks, manager of a grocery store, contributed 53 books to get things rolling, and housewives began throwing in one, two and five books. Mrs. Griswold had five.
The Malvern Daily Record published a story and asked anyone who would like to contribute stamps to call Mrs. Barney Bishop, who is heading the campaign. Twenty-five books were contributed in a week.
Mrs. Bishop said Mrs. Griswold probably would be able to make the trip early this summer. The stamps will be redeemed at $3 a book, Mrs. Bishop said.
Mrs. Griswold was a war bride during World War II. She came to this country in 1946 and hasn't seen her family in Naples since.
She has six children. Recent letters have told of the serious illness of her brother. She said she would not have been able to afford the trip.

Feed Grain Program Extended

The final date for signing intentions to participate in the 1962 Feed Grain Program has been extended to Saturday April 14, '62. All corn and grain sorghum producers are urged to contact the ASCS office as soon as possible if they desire to participate in the Feed Grain program.
Farmers that participate in the program may be assured of the following advantages and assistance:

2. Be assured of an income on the diverted income regardless of crop outcome.
3. Save on diverted acres the cost of fertilizing, preparing of ground, planting, cultivating, harvesting and labor costs.
4. Be assured of price supports for grain crops produced on farm.
Producers failing to sign their intentions to participate by April 14 will be too late.
Arkansas Highway Directors F. R. Oliver said Tuesday his office had borrowed 100 notebooks, but declined to name the state from which they came. Oliver said the books would be repaid as soon as new printing contracts were signed.
The old contracts were invalidated by the state Supreme Court. The delay in re-letting the contracts was to receive new bids which were announced Tuesday. A further delay was caused by a controversy over bonds accompanying the bids.

Delay Brings Borrowing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A delay in the re-letting of state printing contracts forced at least one state office to go a-borrowing in a neighboring state.
Arkansas Highway Directors F. R. Oliver said Tuesday his office had borrowed 100 notebooks, but declined to name the state from which they came. Oliver said the books would be repaid as soon as new printing contracts were signed.

Actor Cables Wife He Still Loves Her

LONDON (AP) — Actor Richard Burton cabled his wife today re-assuring her that he still loves her despite his headlined kisses with Elizabeth Taylor.
Friends said the cable was in Welsh to keep the message from prying eyes.
It said: "Love to all. Everything fine."
He followed up the cable with a telephone call. The result was that Burton's blonde wife, Sybil, 32, was much happier today, friends said.
Actor-playwright Emyl Williams, long-time friend of the Burtons and godfather to one of their two children, said he was convinced that everything was fine between Burton and his wife.
Williams emphatically denied reports in two London papers that Mrs. Burton was planning to fly to Rome to join her husband, who has been reported kissing Liz on and off the set of the movie "Cleopatra."
An attorney in New York announced Monday that Miss Taylor and singer Eddie Fisher, her fourth husband, had agreed to part and would seek a divorce.

In 1936 Rotarians of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee organized the Tri-State Association for Cripples for the dual purpose of helping to finance the work of the Hospital for Crippled Adults and recommending patients for treatment at this hospital.
As one feature of his program, Mr. Talbot will present a color sound moving picture which gives a complete program on the policies and activities of the hospital, featuring the statements of several patients in various stages of treatment.
Mr. Talbot's program promises to be one of inspirational information to be presented to the local Rotary Club and officers and patients at a 100% attendance.

Faubus Insists He Won't Back Any Candidate

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus indicated today that he would not back any candidate to succeed him.
Faubus, back in his office after a two-day fishing trip, was asked about reports that Arnold Sikes, his executive aide, is being urged to run for governor.
"I'm not going to try to keep anyone from being a candidate for any office," Faubus said. "Neither will I try to get anyone to be a candidate. That is my position."
Sikes, who spiked rumors Tuesday that he would run for secretary of state, said he has been deluged with phone calls since word of his decision spread.
Sikes did not say he was being urged to run for governor, but the general impression was that most of the callers were trying to get him to assume leadership of Faubus' political organization.
Faubus had said previously that he did not at this time plan to take a personal hand in the governor's race, but he might come out against someone he felt would be bad for the state.
Faubus reiterated today that he decided not to seek a fifth term because he wants to retire from politics, at least temporarily, and he would not be retiring if he became too involved in someone else's campaign.
Faubus said he still was getting quite a bit of mail, most of it expressing regret at his decision not to run again.

Surplus Food Cut to Fight Negro Boycott

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — City officials have voted to withdraw Birmingham's support of a county-wide surplus food program following a Negro boycott of downtown stores.
An overwhelming majority of those receiving the surplus food are Negroes.
The three city commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday to withhold the city's share of the $100,000 program. Since seven months of the program have expired, the city's share for the remaining months would amount to about $10,750.
The program is supported by other communities in Jefferson County, which has a population of about 640,000.
Mayor Arthur J. Hanes said, "We've got to do something to nip this boycott in the bud." He said business license fees are governed by business volume and that when business is off, license fees decline. He said the city loses money "and we've got to make it up somewhere."
The boycott began about two weeks ago after Negro leaders demanded that downtown merchants desegregate hiring practices, rest rooms and drinking fountains.

Gen. Walker Blames Kennedy, Declares He Was a Scapegoat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edwin A. Walker, former Army major general, told investigating senators today he "was a scapegoat of an unwritten policy of collaboration and collusion with the international Communist conspiracy."
The Army veteran lashed out at all officials, from the President down, in an appearance before a special Senate investigation into charges that anti-Communist activities of military leaders have been muzzled.
"With this nation's survival at stake, our armed forces are paralyzed by our national policy of 'no win' and retreat from victory," Walker said.
"I, myself, am a victim of this 'no win' policy. I was charged with nothing. I have been found guilty of nothing. I have been punished for nothing."
Walker was relieved of command of the 24th Army Division in Germany last year and admonished after his troop indoctrination program came into controversy.
The Army found he had made derogatory statements about prominent Americans, including former President Harry S. Truman and Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.
Walker subsequently resigned from the Army and refused retirement pay. He is now living in Texas and is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of that state.
Walker blamed his removal from command and admonition upon President Kennedy, saying: "The Chief Executive was both prosecutor and judge. The press reported without contradiction that the President directed Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to start the investigation, and that the President also reviewed and approved the Army's findings."
Earlier he had listed the President, McNamara, Secretary of the Army Elvis Stahr Jr., and Army military heads in Europe as responsible for these actions.
Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, head of U.S. Army forces in Europe, said Continued on Page Two

Mistrial Is Declared in Rape Case

A mistrial was declared Tuesday in the rape case of John D. Patrick when a Hempstead Circuit Court jury was unable to agree. The jury was dismissed by Judge Lyle Brown. No retrial date was set.
Patrick, a 28 year old Negro, was charged with the July 2, 1961 brutal beating and rape of a 72 year old white woman.
The trial opened court Monday with prosecuting witnesses being heard. Defense witnesses were heard Tuesday and the case went to the jury shortly before noon. About 4 p. m. the jury told the court it was hopelessly deadlocked. The 10 white and two Negro panel was dismissed.
Court appointed attorneys for the defense were F. C. Crow and James H. Pilkinton.

Successor to Parkin Still a Secret

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The question of a successor to Highway Commissioner Harry W. Parkin remained a closely guarded secret today.
Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who said last week he has made the selection and notified the appointee, refused to discuss the matter today.
Faubus turned aside numerous questions aimed at isolating a name and finally dismissed the topic with this remark:
"You won't find him in Little Rock. That's all I've got to say."
The remark indicated that Parkin, who resigned from the commission so his firm could submit new bids on printing contracts it lost because he was a commissioner, would not be reappointed.
Some reports held that Parkin would be renamed if his firm was unsuccessful in new bidding for the contracts. Parkin won only five contracts with a total value of $29,600.
Officials of the Highway Department have steadfastly maintained they do not know who the new commissioner will be.

No Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House press secretary Pierre Salinger says President Kennedy will not hold a news conference this week for the first time in five weeks. He said there was no particular reason for the decision.

Parcel Post Rates Doubled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department has doubled the amount of increase in parcel post rates it is asking the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve.
The new request, submitted Monday, would raise parcel post rates 12 per cent instead of the 6 per cent requested last January. Postmaster General J. Edward Day, noting that the law requires revenues to be within 4 per cent of the cost of service, said the department is losing about $122 million a year on present parcel post rates.

Low Bidders to Receive Printing Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fifteen state printing contracts will be awarded to apparent low bidders as soon as a few technicalities are taken care of, Secretary of State Nancy Hall said today.
The technicalities are approval of the governor, treasurer and auditor for the contracts.
The contracts are those lost by the Parkin Printing Co. on an Arkansas Supreme Court decision.
Parkin was the apparent low bidder on only five of the contracts when a second set of bids was opened Friday. The five contracts are worth an estimate $29,600.
Value of the 15 contracts is estimated at between $800,000 and $900,000.
Arkansas Printing and Lithographing Co. and Arkansas Stationery and Furniture Co., the firms which filed the suit which got the Parkin contracts invalidated, are apparent low bidders on four contracts, worth about $400,000.
Mrs. Hall said the second bids ran about five per cent under figures for which Parkin first won the contracts last July.
Arkansas Printing and Hurley Printing Co. of El Dorado, which posted insufficient bonds with their bids, now have made the bonds sufficient and are eligible for the contracts under an attorney general's ruling, Mrs. Hall said.

Rice Hulls for Poultry Litter

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Commerce Commission has cleared the way for the poultry industry to use rice hulls, once a worthless by-product of rice milling, for poultry litter.
The commission authorized the state's four major railroads to reduce carload commodity rates on rice hulls hauled from Stuttgart, DeWitt, Weiner, Newport, Tuckerman, Carlisle and Fair Oaks to anywhere in Arkansas.
The commission said the value of the hulls quite often was less than freight charges and a reduced rate was necessary to make traffic profitable for all concerned.
A new source of material for poultry litter was needed, because of a shortage of straw, sawdust and wood shavings in poultry producing areas.
Affected railroads are the Cotton Belt, Missouri Pacific, Rock Island and Frisco.

15 Damage Suits in Bomber Crash

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fifteen suits for damages have been filed in U.S. District Court in connection with the crash of an Air Force jet bomber March 31, 1960, in Little Rock.
The 15th suit, however, was filed Tuesday, three days after the statute of limitations for such claims expired.
The 14 suits filed before the deadline seek a total of $377,654 for personal injuries and property damage. The 15th asked for a $675 judgment for Allie Western Mutual Insurance Co. the company said that was the cost of repairs to the home of Finos Phillips.
U. S. Atty. Robert Smith said his office still was compiling information in preparation for trying the suits, but indicated it would be some time before any come to trial.

Declares Policy Saps Army Will to Resist Reds

Prisoners Trials End in Havana

HAVANA (AP) — The military court judging the 1,179 prisoners captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion has ordered the trial closed and is ready to hand down its verdict and pass sentence, Havana papers said today.
Prosecutor Santiago Cubas, at the closing session Tuesday of the six-day trial, demanded sentences ranging from 20 years imprisonment to death on charges amounting to treason.
The prosecutor said the accused committed crimes against the integrity and stability of the nation and against the state's powers when they landed last April in an effort to overthrow the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.
The paper El Mundo said these crimes were known as treason in most penal codes.
There was no indication when the court will hand down the sentences.
Western observers were barred from the trial, which was conducted in a basketball court inside a colonial fort where the captives have been held for several months.

Specialized medicine means a lot of people get together at a party to talk about their operations.

Diplomatic Life Not So Easy

BERLIN (AP)—Being a diplomat for Communist East Germany is no easy job, says an official. West Berlin intelligence agency.

Information Bureau West said a member of the East German trade mission in Cairo decided he couldn't take it any more and defected.

He reported that members of East German missions in capitalist or neutral countries must send and receive all private mail through the office where superiors can check the letters.

Anyone who wants to spend more than two hours outside his home after 8 p.m. must notify the mission chief.

For a warm and sunny Easter Sunday and many days thereafter, here are fashions in lightweight fabrics. Silk tweed is used (left) for this two piece costume. Is She Who Hesitates Lost?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINEN

Dear Helen: Do you believe in long engagements? I am 18 and engaged to a boy of 24. He thinks we should marry this spring. I want to wait a year and earn money to buy things for our home. My fiancé says that if we wait a whole year of being together will be wasted. Since we are of different faiths, I feel the need of time to think all this over. What do you advise? —Future Bride

Dear Future Bride: No, I don't believe in long engagements but that is beside the point. Postponing your marriage isn't the answer. What you should do is sit down and think your problem through "now." Ask yourself, if you really love this boy (I doubt it from the tone of your letter). Can you in all honesty accept his faith or will he accept yours? In whose faith will your children be reared? Until you settle these issues, you both are indeed waiting your time.

Dear Helen: I am a sophomore in high school and, until last December, played the field. Then I met a man 11 years older than I who made my heart do a double turn. We dated until my parents issued a cruel edict. I could never see him again!

Now he waits after school and drives me to within a block of my home each day. My parents are sure to find out about this. He's a hard one to discourage. What shall I tell him? —Worried Teen-ager

Dear Worried: Give your parents the truth and ask your father to tell that man you do not care to see or talk to him again. He's up to no good. The sooner you put him out of your life the better.

My mind dwells on this possibility until I'm half convinced that I do not then I seem to awake as if from a had dream and I couldn't be happier in the knowledge that the man I married is the one man in the world for me. Still that doubt does reoccur! Can you help me? —Scared

Dear Scared: Fears such as yours often plague young wives. They disappear with readjustment to your new life. But keep this in mind: Loving is a two-way street. The more you love your husband, the more he will love you and as a consequence, the happier your marriage. Like everything else in life, you have to work at it.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Successful Marriage."

Body Found at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Police found the body of James Davis, 35, of Aurora, Ill., near here Monday and officers were to leave today for Bloomington, Ill., to take custody of Harold A. Martin, who said he killed him.

Martin, 24, of Texarkana, a Texas parole violator, was arrested last week in Bloomington. He told officers he had hit Davis on the head with a hammer after an argument and dumped him in a ravine eight miles southwest of Texarkana, Texas.

Martin was arrested in Davis' car after a 17-year-old girl who had accompanied him from Texarkana telephoned her mother, then called police.

Police found a blood-stained hammer Tuesday about five miles from the spot where the body was found.

Care for Aged Bill Finds Some Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both supporters and opponents of President Kennedy's proposal for health care of the aged said today they were encouraged by a new Republican move in the field.

Each side saw in a different light an appeal by Rep. William E. Miller of New York, the Republican national chairman, to all Republican members of the House to join in cosponsoring a plan based on private insurance.

Miller wrote all members on his side of the aisle recommending a bill by Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, to provide tax credits or federal aid of up to $125 per person for those over 65 who would subscribe to approved private health insurance plans. The Kennedy bill would provide hospital and nursing home care for retirees with a Social Security tax increased to pay the cost.

House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma and Rep. Cecil R. King of California, who introduced the Kennedy plan in the House, said Miller's move is good news for the Kennedy plan.

"It means that Republicans now come out and say there has to be some legislation," Albert said. "But they are trying to win support for a completely untried plan instead of the one we support, which has been cost-analyzed, discussed, debated until all the pros and cons are known."

The Republican House leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, said the Republican leadership has so far taken no position on Bow's bill.

Nominations Made

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has sent to the Senate nominations for two Arkansas postmasterships—DeWitt C. Henry at Boone and Mary E. Benbrook at Norfolk.

Contract Bond Increase Okay

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Frank Holt ruled today that bidders on state contracts can increase an insufficient bond before the contracts are let.

The opinion went to Secretary of State Nancy Hall who has held up awards of 15 printing contracts worth about $1 million until the legal question was cleared up.

Six of 14 firms which bid on the contracts failed to post bonds totaling $15,000 on the 12 contracts which covered both printing and binding.

Mrs. Hall first started to reject bids with insufficient bonds, but later asked Holt for a ruling.

Holt said Mrs. Hall was correct in requiring $15,000 total bond but printers who posted less than that amount would be in substantial compliance with state law as long as they make the bonds sufficient before contracts are awarded.

The 15 contracts are those lost by the Parkin Printing Co. on a Supreme Court decision. Parkin submitted new bids on all 15 contracts after he resigned from the state Highway Commission so his firm would be eligible to bid again.

Dear Helen: I'm 18 and married to a wonderful man and I love him. But every once in awhile a cold feeling hits me in the pit of my stomach and I feel like grabbing something and holding on real tight as a terrible doubt hits me: do I really love my husband?

My mind dwells on this possibility until I'm half convinced that I do not then I seem to awake as if from a had dream and I couldn't be happier in the knowledge that the man I married is the one man in the world for me. Still that doubt does reoccur! Can you help me? —Scared

Dear Scared: Fears such as yours often plague young wives. They disappear with readjustment to your new life. But keep this in mind: Loving is a two-way street. The more you love your husband, the more he will love you and as a consequence, the happier your marriage. Like everything else in life, you have to work at it.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Successful Marriage."

Body Found at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Police found the body of James Davis, 35, of Aurora, Ill., near here Monday and officers were to leave today for Bloomington, Ill., to take custody of Harold A. Martin, who said he killed him.

Martin, 24, of Texarkana, a Texas parole violator, was arrested last week in Bloomington. He told officers he had hit Davis on the head with a hammer after an argument and dumped him in a ravine eight miles southwest of Texarkana, Texas.

Martin was arrested in Davis' car after a 17-year-old girl who had accompanied him from Texarkana telephoned her mother, then called police.

Police found a blood-stained hammer Tuesday about five miles from the spot where the body was found.

Yanks, Tigers, Orioles Picked in American

BY JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Yankees, who else?

One of the greatest power-hitting teams of all time, the New York Yankees have virtually everything going for them. They have a strong pitching staff, the best infield, the best catching and the most powerful one-two punch in baseball.

If that's not enough — and it should be — the Yankees have fortified their bench and have added some of the finest looking young prospects seen this spring. All this plus high morale and the cool, calm and efficient leadership of Manager Ralph Houk add up to a one-sided pennant race with the finish coming sooner than last year.

Detroit's Tigers again figure to provide the most stubborn opposition mainly because of an excellent outfield headed by Al Kaline and Rocky Colavito, American League batting king Norm Cash, the front-line pitching headed by Frank Lary, Jim Panning and Don Mossi, and the improvement of infielders Steve Borne and Jake Wood.

No other club figures to be proved their balance by exchanging old players for younger ones close. Chicago's White Sox impute they sacrificed a good percentage of their power and don't appear to have improved their pitching unless Herb Score stages a spectacular comeback and rookies Joel Horlen and Gary Peters come through.

Cleveland's Indians picked up pitching strength by the acquisition of Dick Donovan and Pedro Ramos and the promotion of Sam McDowell, their $70,000 bonus darling. They should be a more closely united group under their new manager, Mel McGaha, but they still lack power.

The Baltimore Orioles have been the hardest hit of last year's contenders. Their once superb pitching staff is depleted by an injury to Jack Fisher, illness of Mill Pappas and the call to the Army of Steve Barber, ace of the staff. The addition of John (Boog) Powell, prize rookie, the development of Jim Gentile into a feared batter and the presence of Brooks Robinson, a star of first magnitude, make the Orioles an offensive threat for the first time.

The remaining five clubs all appear to have improved somewhat but not sufficiently to crack into the first division.

Here is how this observer rates them:

1. New York
2. Detroit
3. Baltimore
4. Chicago
5. Cleveland
6. Minnesota
7. Boston
8. Los Angeles
9. Washington
10. Kansas City

Eddie Acaro Will Quit Race Tracks

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Eddie Acaro, one of the great athletes of modern times, has come to the end of his brilliant career after 30 years in the saddle. But, he might have stuck around another year if Jaipur had been nominated for the Kentucky Derby.

The great 46-year-old jockey made official his retirement Tuesday night.

Acaro probably has ridden more great horses than any jockey in American turf history. He quit as the greatest money rider of all time. No other rider has won five Kentucky Derbies, six Preakness and six Belmont stakes.

"But," he paused with a resigned smile, "I sincerely believe that if Mr. Widener was going to run Jaipur in the derby, I'd have stayed around another year."

Jaipur was one of the top 2-year-olds of 1961, and Acaro rode him. But George D. Widener, chairman of The Jockey Club and former president of Belmont Park, has a consuming desire to win the Belmont Stakes.

He didn't name Jaipur for the May 5 derby, and the colt hasn't raced since last fall.

Acaro listed three main reasons for retiring:

"One, I'm 46 years old.

"Two, I became bored with riding.

"Three, I had this business opportunity."

He will be field representative for the American Totalisator Co., which leases the "tote" machines at race tracks.

Acaro's mounts earned a total of $1,606,707 in 1961, and his 10 per cent gave him a salary of $160,670.

"I feel like I'm leaving on top. If you had to mention the top five riders in the country today, I'm nam enough to think I'd have to be among them."

Masters Open Will Feature A. Palmer

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, who is not scared of the devil himself, goes after his third Masters golf title in five years Thursday with a couple of serious concerns — Augusta National's formidable greens and Jackie Nicklaus.

"The greens are going to fool a lot of people," the tournament favorite from Latrobe, Pa., said today. "They've changed the texture on some of the greens and, while I don't think they'll be any faster, they're going to be harder to read."

The Bermuda greens on the last nine holes of the golf course were sowed with a different type grass intended to give them a smoother putting surface. The first nine greens were left unchanged.

"My putting is the only thing bothering me," said Palmer, an 8-1 pre-tournament choice against a lineup of some 100 of the world's best amateur and professional golfers. "My only consolation is that I know the other fellows will be having trouble on the greens, too."

Asked who he thought might give him the toughest run for it, Palmer was quick with the answer.

"Well, Nicklaus has to be reckoned with. I've been playing with him in practice. He has been hitting the ball a ton. If he can putt these greens, he can be awfully tough."

Besides Palmer and Nicklaus, the most highly regarded contenders are Ben Hogan, whose improved putting has projected him into a threatening role at the age of 49; Doug Sanders the Georgian with the so-called telephone booth swing, and Bill Casper Jr., former National Open champion who is giving the boys putting lessons in practice.

Cauldron Claims First Spa Victory

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Cauldron, carrying the colors of Marion H. Van Berg, claimed his first victory in three starts here Tuesday in the featured $2,700 purse.

Jockey Wayne Chambers, Oaklawn's second leading rider, had Cauldron in contention from the start. He guided his mount over the mile and one sixteenth of fast track in 1:45 2-5 to return $9.00, $5.40 and $3.20.

The victory was the final one of the meet for Chambers, who was handed a 10-day suspension Monday that will eliminate him from the competition until after the meet ends Saturday.

Cauldron, a 5-year-old gelding, was the third wagering choice of the crowd of 7,343.

Mutuel handle for the nine races was $473,076.

Nine of the top 2 year olds in training here will compete in the $5,000 preview today, and heading the list is Clyde Jennings' undefeated Dontstopnow.

Alou Boys Give Giants a Very Potent Attack

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Felipe Alou, flashy San Francisco outfielder who with brother Matty learned to play baseball in the streets of the Dominican Republic, is threatening to give the Giants the most feared 1-2-3 hitting attack in the National League.

Ordinarily a line-drive hitter, the right-handed swinger has become a homer hammerer this spring, and added another long-ball threat to a team already well stocked in that department, with Orlando Cepeda and Willie Mays.

Alou tagged No. 8—his fifth in the last three games—Tuesday, a two-run shot that carried the Giants to an 8-3 victory over Cleveland at Tucson.

Alou has accounted for 24 RBI, a .462 batting average and 65 total bases for an astounding 1,000 slugging percentage.

While Alou was continuing his outstanding spring performance Billy O'Dell, 29, displayed top pitching form and became the first member of the Giants' pitching staff to go nine by fashioning a five-hitter against the Indians.

Other route-going performances were turned in by Roger Craig of the New York Mets and Mo Drabowsky of Cincinnati. Craig spaced nine hits in a 5-4 victory over Chicago's White Sox at Sarasota, but Drabowsky was beaten 5-0 by Minnesota at Orlando despite hurling a seven-hitter.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh knocked off the New York Yankees 4-1 at Fort Lauderdale, St. Louis edged Detroit 7-6 at St. Petersburg, the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped Boston 2-1 at Scottsdale, Milwaukee belted Chicago's Cubs 8-6 at Mesa, Washington defeated Baltimore 6-4 at Miami, the Los Angeles Angels outlasted Houston 10-9 at Albuquerque and Philadelphia beat Kansas City 2-1 at Clearwater.

Bobby Gene Smith stroked a triple and two singles, driving in the winning run for the Mets in the seventh as they snapped the White Sox's six game winning streak. Camilo Pascual and rookie Joe Bonikowski combined to hurl a six-hitter that beat the Reds and Drabowsky. A two-run homer by Don Mincher in the first gave the Twins the runs they needed.

Whitely Ford and Mickey Mantle were bedded with the flu as the Yankees bowed at the Pirates when catcher Don Leppert singled across two unearned runs in the seventh to snap a 1-1 tie. Cardinal shortstop Julio Golay knocked in the tying and winning runs on an infield single with two out in the ninth against the Tigers.

Daryl Spencer hit a homer in the fifth and Ron Fairly doubled home the winner for the Dodgers in the eighth when the Red Sox' Lu Clinton misjudged the fly ball.

Eddie Mathews broke out of his slump for his first extra base hit, slamming two homers and a double for five RBI in the Braves' triumph over the Cubs.

Willie Tasby cleared the bases with a pinch-hit double in the eighth as the Senators beat the Orioles with Pete Burmise, Claude Osteen and rookie Jim Hanan combining for a six-hitter. Lee Thomas' single in a five-run eighth-inning rally produced the winner for the Angels after the Colts had taken the lead with five in the top of the inning.

Chris Short and rookie Paul Brown limited the A's to five hits while John Callison provided the Phils' runs with a two-run homer in the eighth.

yours! Turn through the pages of this exciting section this spring for every member of the

They're Yours

Year after year more and more are ready with what milady store buyers are saying "Califor wants — youth and vibrancy in nia, here I come" — because they fashions! And she's most certain have discovered that in that by going to get them this spring young and vibrant State are many from California.

Definitions in Spring Fashions

Just as styles for milady are continually changing from slim to full . . . from no waistlines to waistline definition — so, too do the words in the fashion vocabulary take on varied meanings.

Although fashion writers talk about silhouettes, there is no "one" real silhouette this spring. This year silhouette annually means "shape." Curves bosoms and flares come into their own, with "shape" foremost and important.

Slim sheaths are shaped to have and hold curves; skirts on dresses come rather than flare fully; white coats are gently eased into hemline fullness from the waist down.

The bosom shapes up with tailoring details and creates a new look to the bodice. There's delineation to the bodice too, that's achieved by set-in-sleeves with narrower lines. Even sleeveless fashions have more style to the shoulders and more bosom definition than they have shown in the past. This anatomical area gains further definition in gay little jacket, bolero and capelet topping with fitted or demi-fitted fronts and pert, flared and full backs.

The Princess

With the return to the "theorem of curves," logically the princess takes on new importance. High waistlines key the cut and details of the princess and it's usually executed as a like the skirt-the-body style or a coat-dress.

The '62 twist to the princess is in the fact that there's usually the barest of neckline detail while the bodice is fitted and accented under the bosom with tailored detail.

Its flare skirt starts from the hips and widens to the hem. The fullness is often at the sides rather than in the full circle indicative of princess styling in the past.

Excitement Add-ers

Many intricate and exciting details help make the new styles look very spring '62!

Predictions for fashion excitement are centered on the use of flattering jabots, ruffles down the front of dresses, ruffles at sleeve edgings, in the discreet yet exhilarating use of heads glitter and trims on daytime as well as date-time fashions.

Fashion gilds the lily with double-duty jackets that give extra fashion mileage to smart dresses. Draped bodices are flattering to every woman and every woman is handsomely flattered by the grace of floating fabrics like silk chiffons; airy, lace wools, silk souffles and others.

Color Flattery

Few colors being shown this spring will be "difficult" to wear. Blonde, brunette and redhead alike can wear almost any of spring's delicious colors. From appetizing fruit colors to eye-compelling flower garden hues, the palette is pleasing to the peaches-and-cream complexion-types as well as to the sun-kissed tans.

Away with the old definitions, hurry for them! Do your own fashion vocabulary research in the spring collections at your favorite

FOR WANDERLUST-ERS OR SMART "STAY-AT-HOMERS" this sunny-clime suit in a worsted seersucker, a 100 per cent wool fabric, supplies a brand new fashion bonus. Its light-as-air fabric is wrinkle-resisting, is in the classic gray and white of seersucker stripe. The eased sheath is covered by a waist-length box jacket.

Gay, New Millinery Is So High, Wide and Handsome

The feminine look for spring is essentially a young and animated one. The soft look of fit, flares and lots of ruffles sets the pace for the new silhouettes and fabrics that shape up the millinery story, too.

Soft felts that are easily manipulated and silks with a lot of surface interest are at the top of the long list of fascinating fabrics that go into the fanciful hats for the season.

High urban shaping is one of several draped silhouettes for spring. Slouch hats, high-crowned and mobile looking, take on a new look in soft-as-a-handkerchief felts.

Many of the newer hats are like puffs of clouds in gay meline and flower combinations.

Additional height and soft movement are interpreted in manipulated caps, slouches and toques.

Hats are as flattering as they are new looking. Exciting fabric novelties such as strawcloth, jersey and straw braid are get-togethers with chiffon, florals and patent-leather trims.

Profile upturns, variations on cartwheels (but with higher crowns) rollers and beret shapes are set off smartly with flowers, bands and bows.

There's a shiny look to straw, straw-cloths and basket-weave straws are being shown to complement new, handsome suits.

Gay pixy hats, little pillboxes with "up-jutting" accents, skimmers and variety of caps give a gay lilt to the more casually-styled fashions of the new season.

shops and choose those fashion expressions that please you — for a fashionable spring and a best-dressed Easter.

Dress Shirts Show More Short Sleeves

The shirt story for spring spells comfort. Everyone wants to enjoy the comfort of short sleeves during the hot months ahead — and you'll probably be among the discoverers of new-found comforts.

The interesting innovation in these short sleeve summer shirts is that they now come in a host of fashion-smart collar styles that eliminate that just-off-the-ham-mock-look well dressed men have associated with the short-sleeved sportshirt-dress-shirt combinations of yesteryear.

Shirt and sport shirt fabrics have gone all out wash and wear. The elite are blended of Dacron and Cotton, come in versions of batiste fabrics, even some open weaves.

Innovation in cotton summer shirts is the non-resin wash and wear finish. It is soft to the hand — feels just like pure cotton; it keeps its wash and wear qualities for the life of the shirt; and it is cooler because there are no resin scales to clog the pores.

News for Night

"Though California's known for her leisure wear, she's not to be forgotten when shopping for fashions to wear after dark. Using sportswear fabrics to create an after five dress, or sportswear silhouette designed in elegant fabrics, can mean a stand out gown and often does when Western stylists hold the scissors and thread!

Gifts for Her Easter Are Varied, Many

Every woman is clever and talented in buying for herself the things she really needs. But few women, no matter how extravagant, will really and completely indulge themselves in those charming accessories that are more nice than necessary, says the Jewelry Industry Council.

And in this general reluctance lies a bewildered male's best Easter gift clues of the season.

A woman's purse is a good place to start, the Council suggests. A new wallet, a special pen or pencil to fit her handbag, a handsome key chain, comb-and-file sets in a neat case, a charming and decorative pill box, cigarette case, lighters and compacts and lipstick cases are all delightful accessories every woman loves but rarely buys for herself.

A lady's dressing table offers a few more helpful clues, the Council suggests. A handsome tray to hold brush and comb, a gleaming silver set of matched mirror, brush and comb, and small decorative dishes for pins, a handsome jewel case to keep and display her favorite baubles, a vase, or picture frame, are all touches of beauty she will use and appreciate every day in the year.

If she is a career girl, with a desk of her own, a gift she can use and enjoy at work has special sentimental value. Desk accessories, smart but feminine; the nice touch of a safebasket that matches; lighters; ash trays; picture frames; pens; all will add a new of lasting remembrance as special Easter gifts.

The things a lady wants the most are sometimes the things she needs the least. The clever man who takes this perverse fact into account is apt to find this is the most successful Easter gift approach.

Gloves Go Right Along With Fashion

Spring's shorter, wider sleeves make Easter parading a hand-in-glove fashion this year. Attractive leather gloves in every length from four to 16 buttons star below coat sleeves that end everywhere from midforearm to the sleeveless shoulder. The very simplicity of this spring's fashions call for elegant leather gloves to strike an extra smart note.

The pretty look of feminine hands will be carried up to near-elbow length in daytime and late-day gloves of glaze kid and luxurious suede leather. Worn at full length or crushed down to just above the wrists, the longer gloves make a fashion accent for a town suit or a flowing coat.

The American Revolution was financed in part by a loan backed by five million pounds of Virginia tobacco. Benjamin Franklin helped get the money from France.

HERBERT BURNS

More Color, Simple Style in Handbags

Fashion is well in hand this spring — in a lovely handbag. Styled to flatter the new "soft" look of feminine fashions, spring handbags are high in eye appeal, simple in style and light on the budget.

Smooth, grained, suede and patent leather handbags provide color and fashion accents to a multitude of spring costumes. There are roomy clutches in smooth calf, soft kid or nappy suede leathers and a variety of boxes, pouches, totes and satchel bags in antique patent and grained leathers.

The new handbags, whose simple, almost severe lines, are beautifully interpreted in rich simple leathers, blend with classically tailored or highlight fluid Spring coat-dresses.

Shirts Go For More Color Now

For years mens' fashion stylists have been predicting that striped and colored business shirts would make a strong comeback. This spring, according to those in the know, they are right.

It now appears that the average man has lost his fear of fancy dress shirts and as a result many more interesting and good looking spring outfits will be seen.

Most popular of the colored shirts are the blues followed by grays, off-white, tans and soft olive tones. Pink, the style favorite of several years ago, returns in deeper versions than the old pastels. And the striped fabrics include both narrow and broad types and these are often used together as cluster stripes.

Collar styles show up in the very popular modified spreads, snap-tabs, button-downs, short points and both square and rounded pinned models.

The fabrics include end-and-end madrases, broadcloths, oxfords and leatherweight batistes and open weave denims. Look for many more half-sleeve styles for warm weather wear.

Sports shirts, in many instances, assume the nautical note that keys so much of this season's sports wear. Both button-up and popover styles are made with big roomy pockets and other details culled from actual sailing garments.

A very interesting new note in casual shirts due to get a good deal of masculine approval, is the "work shirt" influence. Among the more obvious details of the "work shirt" styles are big contrasting stitches such as red stitching on blue, and white stitching on gray.

However, it is the rugged denim and chambray fabrics, the uncluttered workmanlike collars and, of course, the big work shirt-type pockets that will offer practical as well as visual value to these rugged shirts for carefree hours.

Button-down collars continue to rate high with natural shoulder wearers. The newest of these shirt styles show an interesting assortment of "frosted" hot colors with emphasis on a shade called malecon. Also new are collar shaped exactly like the button-downs but without the button holes and buttons; a worthy successor to the tabless tabs, they are usually spoken of as buttonless button-downs.

Lightweight Hats Are Far Ahead

For early spring the feather-weight felt hat offers comfort plus fashion. They make great summertime travel companions, too. Among the most popular shades are gray, blue-grays, olives and browns. Shapes range from small to not so small; shape them to suit your fancy.

Summer straws place more emphasis on the light natural shades than in the recent past and these lighter colors offer a welcome alternate to the midtone and darks.

Newest kick in straws are soft "shape it yourself" braids and weaves. There are sophisticated semitailored hats for town wear and wild "way out" styles for country and beach wear. Look for bright shades, multicolored bodies and even blacks in the casuals.

Sports caps, which have made a big comeback in recent seasons appear to be here to stay. And they're available in a riot of colors, patterns and shapes which, together with all the new season's sportswear, symbolize a bold invitation to open season on fun.

Many 'Looks'

The silhouette story from the West starts logically from the top — with shoulders and sleeves newly emphasized for spring. Cape effects and bat sleeves are playing the key role in creating this shape, but domed shoulders, huge puffed sleeves and wide standaway collars do their share.

Here's a Fashion Tip to Brighten

Here's a fashion tip for brightening up that "little nothing" sheath dress for spring:

A short jacket, fashioned from any of the glamour fabrics of the season will dress up that simple sheath into something extra special for evening.

If you're handy with the sewing machine, there are many patterns available for Chanel-styled, bolero cardigan jacket, cape-top, bolero cardigan jacket, etc. that are easy to make. Or, your favorite neckwear department or fashion shop may carry just what you are looking for.

Men's Fashion Stylists Say 'Tall Look' Is Newsworthy

Suit models for spring and summer are characterized in general by "The Tall Look," reports the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear.

The flattering trend is evidenced in all basic models, including the Trans-American, Ambassador, and the perennial favorite, the American Natural. Fine points in tailoring and in fabric patterning are responsible for the "Tall Look" — spelled out by narrow lapels, unpadded shoulders and the use of vertical effect weaves. Two-button jackets are enjoying a revival, competing this season with the standard three button variety. It's all due, says men's wear authorities, to the preference shown for this style by President Kennedy.

The new slim look is further enhanced by the use of stripes in all their profusion — pin stripes, pencil, cluster and chalk.

Equally new and important is the big trend to blue. It's definitely a blue year, for every indigo hue abounds, from navy through sky. There are combinations of blue with blue and of blue with white. While the new note is the blue note, olives and grays continue to hold high favor and are much to be seen.

In answer to a growing demand, men's shops are displaying a whole new line of "midweight" or "interim weight" suits for those in-between days that are too warm for winter weights and too chilly for lightweight varieties. Making them more practical than ever, the use of man-made fibers in the midweight fabrics has produced greater than ever strength and shape retention. In the light weights for hot summer days, the use of polyesters and acrylics have added such essential qualities as wrinkle resistance.

The long-predicted comeback for striped and colored business shirts is actually here in 1962. Blue is the odds on favorite in both solids and stripes. But grays, off whites, soft olive tones and even pink are to be found. The new shirt collars include modified spreads, snap tabs, short points that vie with the ever popular down. More in favor then ever for hottest days are the half sleeve styles. Fabrics range from the traditional broadcloths and oxfords to open weaves and featherweight novelty types.

Topcoats and raincoats in the split raglan shoulder models are rated tops in popularity this season. But there is also a trend to the set-sleeve, fly-front, slightly fitted semi-Chesterfield in topcoats. In raincoats some very short, European inspired styles are gaining acceptance. Sporty plaids and checks, many with zip-in liners, have a practical appeal for those who seek performance along with style.

The new season's hats are generally somewhat higher in the crown. With narrow brims in continuing favor, they come in such popular shades as a wide range of grays, blue grays, blues, olives, black and brown.

Fine Rayons Shaping Up as Smart

The season ahead promises a bright and gay panorama of color, as new pastels are let muted, and tri-color blazers, paired with white or off-white dresses, stage a big fashion come-back.

With color so important in the fashion picture, it stands to reason fabrics that can add to and enhance color tones are important. That's why many of the newest fabrics seen in new season fashions feature Avisco rayon fibers. Used in blends with natural or man-made fibers, new Avisco rayon, with its built-in color affinity adds to the eye appeal of spring's newest suits and dresses.

There is versatility in these rayons; paired with other man-made fibers as well as cotton, they assure lighter weight, greater drape of color, and a softer, silkier hand. New fabrics fall into soft, graceful folds, so important to fashions emphasis on the feminine look.

Designed to delight the eye with color and sheen, new Avisco rayons contribute easy care and comfort of wear to new fabric blends. Avisco rayon fibers are to be found in many of the smartest new spring's clothes ever to come down the fashion pike — in fashions that please the eye, yet combine easy care with durability.

Put Color in Focus for Spring

It's a softer, more feminine look this Spring. Waistlines are defined with new emphasis on belts and sashes. Skirts are fuller, jackets shorter, and the bolero marks a comeback. Although the sleeveless look is still popular sleeve are taking on more importance. The fabric trend is toward flatter, smoother materials with crepe in much of the spotlight.

Fashion footnotes point to the square toe and stacked heel; headlines to smoother, well-shaped medium — short coiffures. Color news focuses on all-important white, beige, bone, tan, and combinations of black and white. Important, too, are the clear blues, greens, yellows and pinks.

Color is very definitely in the picture. And, this is the season to capture it — in slides or movies. Easter color film, like Kodachrome II, will catch fashion's — as well as nature's — spring shadings more realistically than ever. Excellent results are possible even in deep shade or fading light.

Lounge Dresses for Leisure

Riding in the wake of the wave of popularity which recently swept the muiumu into America from Hawaiian shores is the LOUNGE-DRESS!

Compared to the new spring lounge-dresses, the muiumu is decidedly last year's style — although last year's hit it did through both fulfill the same fashion need.

Spring leisure dresses have shape enough to look disciplined, but not enough to require foundations. They offer a great deal more variety in fabrics since the muiumu was basically in a floral cotton print.

The lounge-dress will be seen in terry cloths, Arnel jerseys, stretch denims, cotton sateens, as well as the airy batiste, dotted swiss and miracle fabrics.

Styles are as varied as those of sportswear and sleepwear combined. The shift, cropped at the knee or above, promises to be favored, but there will also be A-line flares, tent shapes and "baby dresses."

The shift which falls loosely from a high yoke, looks slightly high-waisted and as innocent as a baby dress, is the likely successor to the muiumu's success. This shift, as well as most of the new lounge-dresses, will slip over the head — although a few have buttons or hidden zippers.

Corsage Is Accessory to Costume

Spring is here and Easter is just ahead! And when Easter comes you just can't help think about flowers?

Do you remember your first corsage? That's a memory that usually conjures up remembrance of an exciting high school prom or the first corsage you wore in the Easter parade.

The years march on, and fashion trends change over and over again — but flowers and the sentiments they convey — never do.

How does one go about selecting the proper corsage? Will the colors be right? Will it be the right size?

These are questions that the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn. is more than happy to answer.

The color and a brief description of the costume to be worn, are the key clues any good florist needs before he can create the proper floral design.

Notify the florist of these points and you can merely phone your order in to your local florist and be sure that the corsage you are ordering for your lady fair in

TRAVELING SERENELY ACROSS TIME AND TEMPERATURE zones is easy in this new suit for all seasons. The lightweight Forstmann worsted fabric in grey is gently shaped in a cropped jacket that's outlined in grosgrain, and flutters out over the narrow skirt. The forsythia polka dot, bow-tied blouse adds a third, smart touch.

Men's Shoes Take on a Neater Look

Always one of the most popular of men's casual shoes, the moccasin has taken on a new role as a leading dress style, according to Shoe Fashion Service of Leather Industries of America. Combining the lightweight, supple leather traditionally used in moccasins with tapered lines, new colors and a variety of detailing, this season's moccasin brings new fashion interest and complete foot comfort into the office.

Flexible, close-cropped leather soles and slightly tapered toes team with discreet inverted seams and stitching to give the shoe a trimmer appearance under narrow trouser cuffs. Both slip-on styles and the two and three-eyelet styles add to the neat look of the modern moccasin.

For the conservatively dressed businessman, moccasin styling has been crossed with more traditional oxford and blucher styles. The result is a rounder-toed shoe with a moccasin front whose stitch detailing is carried back to a tongue-and-lie closure. This handsome shoe is frequently interpreted in lightly grained or smooth leathers.

The new dress moccasins are color-matched to men's fashions this season. Smooth and grained leathers in olive, black-olive and olive linked with brown set off muted glen plaids and boldly patterned sports jackets. Varied tones and contrasting leather textures should be highlighted by the ribbon color.

It's here!

Any news about California fashions would be incomplete without a word on bathing suits. And the word for word for '62 is—variety. The youthfully loose, two piece mildly style promises to be a trend setter. On the other hand, the figure molding suit with a bare-to-the-waist back will undoubtedly be equally popular. Two piece, bare midriff suits which gained wide spread favor in recent seasons will continue to please the young, finely-proportioned ladies.

New Knits Impressive for Spring

The big story in knits for spring is a double one, with double knits coming sharply into focus as four season fabrics. New double knit blends are designed for spring and summer wear, and compare to winter and fall worsted double knits in much the same manner: pale yellow, pale powder blue, as tropical worsted woven fab- adobe, tangerine, turquoise, lime, ries compare to regular worsteds, black, taffy, bright blue and red.

Double knits in cotton are also seen as important spring fabrics in casual wear this season. Lacy cotton knits, forming transparent seashell patterns, and worsted flat knits are other spring offerings, as well as a starchy, tweedy knits that feature foam backing.

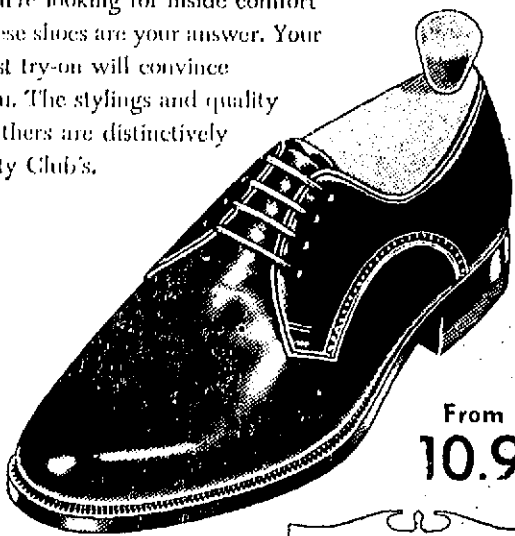

Knit styles favored for spring include slim skirts, sashed over- blouses and matching narrow coats; blouson dresses, some with matching jackets; and shifts with and summer wear, and compare matching jackets.

Popular spring colors are beige, white and fall worsted double knits in much the same manner: pale yellow, pale powder blue, as tropical worsted woven fab- adobe, tangerine, turquoise, lime, ries compare to regular worsteds, black, taffy, bright blue and red.

Note: Jacquards are definitely "in" this season as are other patterned knits.

Imported knits are once again very much in the spring fashion picture — Austrian and Belgian entries feature lace like, open-work stitches for summer effect, and novelty knits that resemble straw haiding. Trims include crocheted edging, embroidery and appliques.

These also favor premanent plisse skirts, flared skirts, 3-piece suits and cape-jackets. Colors are pale, with bright exceptions of yellow, green and red.

Italian knits, follow clean, uncluttered lines, feature elegantly coordinated two and three piece outfits. Black knit cocktail fashions are trimmed with net or satin ribbon.

Knit playwear is often ruffled, scalloped, or fringed for spring; bright screen print tops star here. Shapes are straight or boxy, featuring the belted tunic look. Pants go all out to color in jacquard stripes, overplaids and exciting prints.

Maternity knit styles for spring include scissors front sheaths, coat and coat dress sets, flared jumper dresses.

Exciting New Suit Styles to Star for Spring, Easter

This is the fashion season suit-lovers have been waiting for! Suits are different-looking, more flattering, more colorful and definitely more wearable for more women than they have been for quite a while.

Suits are very much the focal point of interest in the new collections. Since so many women are apt to begin building their spring wardrobes with a "good suit" as the basis, the flattering design and styling of spring '62 suits — is good news.

Beginning with the wonderful buoyancy and bounce of light airy fabrics in suitings, to the colorful "whitened" pastels they are fashioned in, suits show an amazing versatility in dividedend "parts."

The jacket and skirt, each of which is designed for flattery, and more fit, combine with coordinated silk or silktype blouses and overblouses; knit suits are often teamed with handsome knit blouses or may take on a linen or similar-fabric male.

"TWIST" ROPE-NECKLACES and earrings add excitement to spring fashions — and will put you in the casual, care-free mood with their soft color combinations.

The unmolded boxy jacket is gone — instead demi-fit and fit shapes the jacket.

There's more skirt showing too, as the jacket moves up higher.

Jackets vary from the waist-touching length to below the hip. There's also a good crop of fingertip length jackets topping the popular "walking" suit.

Softer, wider cuts define suit skirts and often include shirred tops, panel detail, as well as gathered, bell and dome shapes.

There are three important jacket types in suits; first — the demi-fit top with little collar or none at all. This may feature an off-center closing in dramatic suits — and it's and other novel detail, ter closing and other novel detail.

Bolero suits, play up top interest with fascinating necklines, stitched detail, pocket flaps and novel buttons.

And then there are the open jackets. So many of these are Chanel-inspired, cardigan fronts. There are also a large group of no-button jackets in cut-away or squared-off types. These usually have the narrowest of lapels — or low, away-from-the-neck rings of collar. Most often the open jacket suit is mated with its own over-blouse in print or contrasting color.

Back to fabrics — some of the most important suitings are a mere whisper in weight. In silk and worsted; in important and imported double knits; in worsted crepes in, believe it or not, wool seersuckers in silks blended with cottons, linens synthetics, and in pure silks — fabric is a talking point.

Capes too, come, into new prominence on suits. Or, they may be just capelets.

Checks, plaids, tweeds, handwoven effects and homespun look types of suitings add to the texture look in suits.

Take your pick in color! You're on your own. Navy is "in" and so are blues — from green-influenced tones to the clear bright-true-blue hues. A variety of fresh greens are for the pickings, too.

Yellows are mellow, and the woven effects and homespun look types of suitings add to the texture look in suits.

Further enhancing the new suits are braid trims, bows, banding, high-placed pockets (or just flaps), furs and even leather touches. antie suits — and it's sure to be The feminine wiles of the season love affair, between you and the show up again and again in rom- suit you choose fir spring.

JUST IN TIME FOR EASTER

light-as-air...last longer, too!

It's amazing! Because the new Sarong Perfection Control girdles are made with Stretch-Ever, the no-rubber spandex elastic, they last and control so much longer than ordinary girdles. A few ounces of girdle seem to make pounds disappear—with such wonderful comfort...and they can be machine-washed even with detergents and bleach without discoloration. You'll love the way these new Sarong Perfection Control waistline girdles and panty girdles win the battle of the bulges with no-girdled feeling, thanks to their exclusive criss-cross construction. Only Sarong creates the slim, unbroken line of Spring fashions—with cool and lasting comfort.

Machine washable!
